To W H SETTIN-Bear Sir: After having made a therough examination of the "Vesper Gas," in relation to its illumina-ting power, chemical composition, etc., I do not besitate to reting power, chemical composition, etc., I do not bestiate to recommend it as being safer and more concentral as well as possessing greater intensity of illumination than any other material now in use.

In the laboratory it is superior to the alcohol as a means of obtaining heat, and will be found of invaluable service to the drugglet as well as to the manufacturing chemist.

whe may desire a light much more economical than gas—and at the same time fully equal to it in illuminating power—this ap-paratus will prove a desideratum.

I regard this as the most beautiful and most useful invention for procuring, as small cost, the advantages of gas light that I have ever seen; at the same time that it is perfectly safe—and the lamps are simple in construction and managed with case.

Very truly yours,

P. S. Fall.

From Mr Alexander Fall, Nashville, Mr Thomas H Taylor.—Dear Sir: I have been using the Verper Gas Lamp, sold by you, since September last, and I am perfectly satisfied that it is one of the most economical, if not, war most committed, as well as brillant lights that can be had I be seally managed, and I, unlies takingly, recommend it to all out of the reach of gas.

Atexagrapher.

From Seabury & Co., Gas Fitters Nashville
The Vesper Gas makes a brilliant and beautiful fight, that s chang and pertude and perfectly safe. The construction of the Vesper Gas Burner and retort, is so perfectly simple, that it cannot get out of order, nor can it explode.

The management of the burner is easily understood, and re quires but hitle more attention to keep dean and in good order than actinary gas distarces. The light produced by the Venper Gas we consider fully equal, in every respect, to any other kind of that light. John M. Seasuch, H. S. Peach. Nashville, Dec. 1859.

THOMAS M'NEILLY Senator from Dickson, Hickman, Maury and Lewis Counties, The question being on the final passage of the bill to charter the Mechanias' and Trailers' Bank, to be located at Anshrille.

Mr. McNEILLY said: Mr. Speaker: Before I vote on this bill, I deem it my duly in justice to myself to give briefly some of the ressons that induce me to vote against it. It is known to you, Mr. Speaker, and to Senators n this floor, that I was a friend to the measure known as the General Banking law, passed at this session of the General Assembly. I do not wish to be understood as saying that that law came fully and Summer Goods which comprises all the be understood as saying that that law came fully up to my views upon the subject of banks, or that it has all the restrictions in it that I desired to be thrown around the banks. Very far from it, as Senators on this floor very well known that the competition with the competition w Senators on this floor very well know. But in order to render the bill acceptable to Senstors, and astion nsure its passage, is a spirit of compromise I made many concessions, and submitted to many inroads upon my own peculiar views, in order to secure the R. C. M'NAIRY & CO. Nashville & Chattanooga Bailroad, assage of the measure, believing that it was my duty to do all in my power to settle the vexed question of banking, and give the people whatever advantage or relief there might be in banks properly guarded and restricted; believing that it was my duty as a member on this floor, to do all I could to secure that I could not secure the passage of a law em- Thread Lace Falls; Becamer MINNETONEA,

Leaves Nashvill cevery Monday at 12 o'clock M. bodying all the restrictions that I had hoped to owed to my constituents to compromise with those who did not agree with me in my opinion upon form, rather than fold my arms and leave the setlement of the question to be made or effected by those whom I might style the peculiar friends of the banks, or leave the matter entirely unsettled, to the prejudice of the interests of my party and the people of the whole State. These were the motives that actuated me in my upport of that measure, believing that apon that neasure both sides of the Senate would stand to gether, and that that messure would be regarded es a compromise, and that the provisions of that bill would be strictly adhered to in the chartering of all the banks applying for charters at this session of the Legislature With these hopes and for these reasons, I gave my support to that measure But to my associahment, on the third reading of he bills chartering the Union and Planters' Banks, an amendment was offered and adopted whilst I was ut of the Senate champer, that struck down, as I necive, one of the main pillars of the general panking law, to-wit; the counter note system; and had I have known at the time that I recorded my vote on the heal passage of those bills, that that amendment had been adopted. I most certainly would not have voted for the charter of these banks; out the amendment being offered and adopted whilst was out of the chamber, I voted for them on their inal passage, and it was not until their transmission was ordered to the House of Representatives that I learned that such a provision had been en-grafted in their charters. But upon learning that fact, I immediately went to the House of Regresentatives and informed the peculiar friends of the general banking law of the adoption of that amendment--- the seventh and eighth sections of the bill-and requested them to have it stricken out in the House of Representatives. While those bills were pending in the House of Representatives I was called home by sickness in my family, bu learned that there was an effort made to strike out has amendment, which was voted down; and then there was an amendment offered to construe the seventh and eighth sections so as not to allow the banks to depart from the general banking law-not French, Italian, and India Sitks. with a view to mutilate and cripple the bills, but banking system, and had the banks been chartered strictly in accordance with its provisions, I think the people would have been to a great extent protested from fraud and oppression, and I should not have felt it necessary to make any explanation whatever in regard to my vote, believing that the

with a view to make them harmonize with the gen-of the Legislature: The Union and Planters' Banks, of the Legislature: The Union and Planters' Banks, with greatly increased branching privileges; the Bank of Frankland, at Knoxville; the Merchants' and Planters' Bank of Memphis; and the Bank of Clarksville. These banks, with those heretafore chartered and which are in successful operation, will it my opinion, afford all the necessary banking facilities that the State of Tennessee requires, at least for the present. I shall therefore, entertaining these views, vote against this bill; not that I find anything very objectionable in the bill, but on the contrary it has many things in it that would commend it to me, both in the persons to be incorporated by it, and its strict adherence to the proporated by it, and its strict adherence to the proisions of the general banking law, but as I have Machine Cards and other Findings before said, I think we have already as many banks deemed it necessary to make this explanation in order to place myself in a true position before my
